

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Global Exchange Group to Relocate Corporate Headquarters

Move was initiated by upward company growth

Merchantville, New Jersey (January 23, 2015) -- Global Exchange Group, a leading provider of foreign exchange, global accounts payable outsourcing and international payment solutions, and a division of Cambridge Mercantile Group., today announced that it is relocating from its current Merchantville, New Jersey US corporate office to an office in Bala Cynwyd, Pennsylvania. As of January 26, 2015, Global Exchange Group's new corporate address will be: Three Bala Plaza East, Suite 117, Bala Cynwyd, Pennsylvania 19004.

The move was initiated by extraordinary company growth and plans to continue to develop and support complementary services to law firms. The new office will act as Global Exchange's main headquarters, with subsidiary locations throughout the United States, Canada, United Kingdom, and Australia.

"The new Global Exchange Group corporate location will enable us to sustain the upward growth trend we have been experiencing," said Global Exchange Group's President, Sales and Marketing, Anthony Loiacono. "We are fortunate to not only be aligned with a successful and supportive company, Cambridge Mercantile Group, but also to celebrate over 20 years in business with a larger location. We look forward to many more years of success serving our great clients."

Email contact information will remain the same. The new office will include the same departments as the New Jersey location: client support, product development, compliance, business development, marketing, trading and operations.
